

Police Blotter

Glenwood Post: Aug 23, 1902

Tool Thief Nabbed

Wednesday afternoon a man called at Van Cleve's second hand store on Cooper avenue and offered for sale a splendid lot of carpenters' tools. As the stranger proposed to take $9.00 for tools of the value of about $100. Van Cleve's suspicions were aroused and he called Marshall Weidenhammer into the game with the result that the fellow was nabbed and held for orders.

Thursday Sheriff Struthers and Joe Wedman of Grand Junction arrived in Glenwood and Wedman claimed the tools which he said were stolen from him nearly a month ago. Sheriff Struthers returned to Grand Junction with the prisoner who gave his name as J. W. Critchfield.